"Sometimes I have been very dispirited. But if we disappear, we leave the door open to all kinds of abuse. So I say to my colleagues, "Don't be too ambitious. If you look at all the problems in Cambodia at once, you cannot work. Like you build a house, you build it brick by brick...It will take a long time to advance human rights, but keep moving." ...It's a reward for me to see the new generation of advocates. They are our future."
