"If you can just see all the children of the world as your own, all the mothers of the world as you are, we can make a huge difference."
-- Susan Sarandon